

CALLING YOUNG ARTISTS

A COMMUNITY EVENT CO-CREATED BY OUR NEW CANTORIAL SOLOIST, JODI BLANKSTEIN:

An extraordinary cultural event is about to happen in Needham Ma. We are calling all artists from Kindergarten through college to participate in this important music/art happening.

Needham's newest Community Art Gallery is embarking on an exciting double feature concert/art show that will bond communities together... "We Build the World with Love".

Youth are encouraged to enter an original piece of artwork that reflects any of the following theme: peace, love, acceptance, diversity, and strength of friendship. Drawings, paintings, pastels, small sculptures are all acceptable. The works should be framed and brought to Jodi's office at the temple on September 17th between 2 PM and 6PM. Please contact Jodi at: cantor@bnaitorah.com The art exhibit "We Build the World with Love" will up for the month of October, beginning October 1st.

The opening night of this art show will follow an inspiring interfaith concert. On Saturday, October 20th at 7 PM, please join Cantorial Soloist, Jodi Blankstein and her guitarist, Adam Dehner, along with their bandmates, Anne Kalis, Mitch Gordon, Warren Olsen and DJ Fortine. "Sanctuary" will be joined by members of the church's choir directed by Pamela Goody. "We Build the World with Love" will highlight songs of peace, strength, acceptance, and reconciliation. A reception will follow at which time guests will be able to view the children's artwork. These artistic contributions will be for sale after the concert and all proceeds will go to the organization Kids4Peace: <https://kids4peaceboston.org>.

Both the concert and Needham Community Art Gallery are located at Christ Episcopal Church in Needham (across from the library) at 1132 Highland Ave. Handicap accessible and parking. For information, call the church office: 781-444-1469.
